

The University Hatchet

Vol. 44, No. 13

The George Washington University, Washington, D. C., Tuesday, February 3, 1948

Entered as Second-Class Matter at Post Office, Washington, D. C.

Yearbook Staff Ends Main Task

• THE 1948 CHERRY Tree has gone "to bed"! In spite of difficulties the staff struggled through a semester of work which ended on February 1.

The editor, Mary Olga Longley, announced that all copy has been mailed to the printing and engraving companies and that this will enable the printer to begin work on the type setting in the very near future. Distribution of the yearbook to the students should be this May before the close of the winter term. Besides being good news for the students, this is a great relief for the staff and the editor.

The circulation, however, has lagged behind the editorial work. There will be a booth in the Student Club where students may purchase their copies of the yearbook. The goal set by the circulation manager, Randy Gordon, is 1100 books sold. Although the 1947 annual has not reached the students, the 1948 staff hopes that the student body will support this year's book. If the yearbook is not supported this year, it is very probable that there will not be a Cherry Tree for the future graduates and students.

Great credit should go to the staff members of the book for their constant efforts. The editor thanks all these workers and particularly Joy Saalfrank and Anne Broy who played a heavy part in getting the copy completed and sent to the printers.

University of Oslo Invites American Summer Students

• IN ORDER TO promote cultural relations between Norway and America the second annual Summer School for American Students has been organized for the coming summer at the University of Oslo in Norway.

The term will run from July 1 to August 15 and will carry six semester-hours of credit. Courses in natural and biological sciences and in the humanities will be taught in English by the Norwegian professors of the University of Oslo.

The G.I. Bill of Rights may be used by veterans; others must pay approximately $200 to $250 for tuition and living expenses.

Any person interested in attending the summer session, should send in his application as soon as possible to the Office of Admissions, St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn.

Kayser Fights It Out With 'Memnon'

• DEAN ELMER Kayser will provide an historical background for the University Players' forthcoming production of "Agamemnon" at a public lecture in Lisner Auditorium this Thursday night at 8:30 p.m. At that time Dean Kayser will discuss the world of ancient Troy and the Trojan War.

Aeschylus' tragedy will be presented here March 12 and 13 by the University Players under the direction of Dr. Natalie White, instructor in the speech department.

A tea honoring Miss Edith Hamilton, translator of the Greek tragedy, will be given February 9. One of the leading contemporary Greek scholars, Miss Hamilton has adapted "Agamemnon" for the modern stage by the University dramatic group.

MARY OLGA LONGLEY

PiDE To Tap Drew Pearson; Party Planned

• PI DELTA EPSILON, the national honorary collegiate journalism fraternity, will tap Drew Pearson as an honorary member at a Publications Party, January 9, at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Pearson was selected in recognition of his outstanding contributions and service both in the field of journalism and national welfare. He is nationally known as a news commentator and also for his column which appears in the Washington Post. The idea of the Friendship Train, originated by Mr. Pearson, was a further contribution to national and international relations.

Preceding the tapping of Drew Pearson will be the tapping of new student members. The program for the evening at the party will consist also of short explanations by representatives about the purpose of their publications and the opportunities open for those who wish to become staff members.

This Publications Party for all students will be held in the Student Club. A 50-cent admission fee will be charged for the event. The members of Pi Delta Epsilon have arranged for dancing, card games, bingo, and refreshments.

There Are No Mad Scientists in Building M Just Hatchet Editors With Journalismphrenia

By JIM PEARCE

• FOR THOSE old students who may have been curious, and those new students who might become unduly alarmed, those moans, groans, and low sobs that float from the windows of Building M are not due to some mad scientist's experimentation. Neither are they coming from a student who has just received Dean Kayser's history grades. They are the symptoms commonly associated with the dread disease of journalismphrenia. If you have never had an attack, you dear reader, just haven't lived.

It all starts on Wednesday night, when The Hatchet staff gathers in the inner sanctum to receive assignments. After four reporters are gently pushed through the second-story window to make room, the worn and haggard editors stagger in, collapse into a chair, and gently advise the gathering on the correct methods of journalistic style: "The editors appreciate your undying efforts to get your stories in on time, but, I beg of you (this brings soulful tears to the editor's eyes), please wipe the beer stains from the paper before putting it on the desk!"

Job Issue Discussed At Forums

• TWO FORUMS on the subject of job opportunities are planned by the Senior Class. The first is scheduled for tomorrow at 8:10 p.m. in Room 1 of the Hall of Government. The second will be held Wednesday, February 11, at the same time and place.

Speakers on the first forum will be Dr. Seymour L. Wolfbein, chief of the Occupational Outlook Division, U. S. Department of Labor, who will discuss "Job Opportunities for College Graduates," and Miss Mabel F. Strider, personnel officer of the National Geographical Society for 20 years, who will speak on the topic "An Interview Takes Two."

Dr. Wolfbein's division of the Department of Labor has made extensive studies of employment in all occupations in every section of the country.

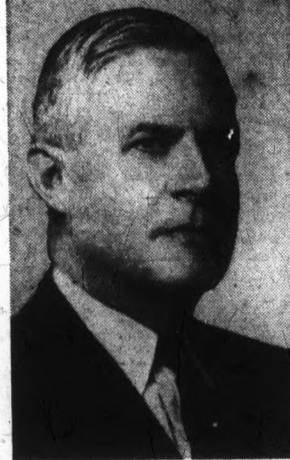

Miss Strider is past president of the District of Columbia Zonta Club for business and professional women and is now a district chairman for Zonta International.

Another feature of the first forum will be a skit entitled "The Job Seeker" presented by the University Players. Mary Alice Novinger and Edward H. Baitz are co-chairmen of the senior employment committee.

The job questionnaires mailed to seniors in January must be completed and returned to Senior Class Secretary Nancy Hancock Woodward at 1933 Calvert Street, N. W.

Book Requisitions Available For Vets

• BOOK REQUISITIONS for veterans will be approved and additional requisitions available in Columbian House from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. through Friday of this week. After February 6 requisitions will be approved in the Veterans' Education Office, 2029 H Street, N. W.

ULYSSES S. GRANT, III

Oquassa Plans Aquacade; Ask For Recruits

• OCQUASSA, swimming club for girls, invites freshman women and other interested women students to try out for membership today and Thursday from 4 to 5 p.m. at the YWCA swimming pool, 17 and K Streets, N.W.

Those who pass the try-outs will be admitted as "minnows" for at least one semester or until they become proficient in the basic skills of synchronized swimming. Uniform black suits and emblems are worn by all women who eventually become "mermaids."

The annual spring Water Show will be presented on April 14 and 15 at the YWCA pool. Admission price will be 75 cents, and only a limited number of tickets will be sold for each night's performance because of the small seating capacity.

The aquacade will include ten water ballets incorporating a wide variety of swimming techniques. The program will include numbers inspired by the music "To a Water Lily," "Coppelia Ballet," "Polovitian Maidens," "Trio," "Indian War Dance," and others. Approximately 40 girls will participate in the aquacade which will feature colorful costuming and lighting effects.

Hospital Will Open March 10

• PRESIDENT CLOYD H. Marvin has announced that the new five-million-dollar University Hospital will be open to receive patients approximately March 10.

The new 405-bed teaching hospital, located on Washington Circle, will be received by the University from the U. S. Public Buildings Administration on or about March 1. The government provided $850,000 for purchase of the land and $3,963,000 for the construction work. Friends of the University contributed funds for the purchase of hospital equipment. The hospital drive has been headed by Vice-president U. S. Grant, III.

Dr. Marvin has stated that plans are being made for a tea on the afternoon of March 8 for the Women's board of the Hospital. Each member will select an imaginary ailment and will then be conducted through the hospital routine required for the ailment.

The University will also be host at a reception on March 9 for alumni, faculty, students, and friends of the University who contributed $848,927.01 to the equipment fund—92% of the $925,000 goal.

The guests will be conducted on an inspection tour of the Hospital. They will see the nurseries, which are designed for closer mother-baby (See HOSPITAL, Page 8)

Three Appointed To Mademoiselle's '48 College Board

• THREE UNIVERSITY students, Barbara Goldschein, Edith Venezky, and Sally Ann Evans, have been appointed to Mademoiselle's 1948 College Board. Edith Venezky is also a member of The Hatchet staff.

These three girls will be competing with over eight hundred girls from 46 states for the prize of working for a month in the New York office of the magazine.

The prize is awarded annually to the twenty Board members who excel in their Mademoiselle assignments during the year. These girls become guest editors of the August College issue of the magazine. They will also participate in a jobs and futures conference which is planned to help them prepare for the careers for which they are best fitted.

Members of the College Board often find that the job offers them opportunities for furthering their careers through the execution of their assignments and through the contacts they make as guest editors.

Engineers To Test Thermal Reaction

• HOW'S YOUR THERMAL oscillatory appeal?

Find the answer to this all-important question at the annual Engineer's Ball to be held February 7 at the Hotel Washington's Hall of Nations Ballroom from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Among the attractions will be a kioskometer to measure thermal oscillatory reactions. Door prizes will also be given; dancing will be to the music of the Alaskans.

All students of the University are invited to attend. The price is $3.00 per couple and tickets may be secured either at the Engineering Office Building or at the dance.

them to the door. One bleary-eyed soul remembers to make a notation on the expense account: "Five gallons of Russian vodka." The drinking cooler is empty. It is Tuesday morning, and all are contented with the thought that on Wednesday it will start all over again.

And that, dear reader, is what leads to journalismphrenia. Once you get the disease, it never leaves your system. After swearing never again each week, you always return to the bedlam and fun of working on a college publication. Eventually you realize that there is just no other activity on campus that can give so much enjoyment to students. Journalismphrenia is probably the only disease that gives such satisfaction to its victims.

If you're interested in being exposed, just come to Building M next Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. Don't let the moans, groans, and sobs scare you away... they're not as bad as they sound. And remember to come upstairs... don't just stand there by the water cooler.

The dawn of Saturday finally breaks, and, of course, everyone has turned in his assignment correctly written and neatly typed. (Eds. note: I hope my staff appreciates the satire of that sentence!) As the shadows lengthen and the oil lamps are lit, the staff is laboring over the news and views of the University. As they collapse one by one, they are stretched out in a corner, and a lily is placed tenderly between their teeth.

Sunday finds partial recuperation setting in. The makeup must be done; the heads must be written.

Finally all the stories seem to fit, there are no gaping holes in the pages, and every article has a headline. It is Monday morning! A new week is starting!

But that is not all. Monday finds the Mohicans back at the job. The paper must be printed!

Then the moment comes. The shining hour arrives. The Hatchet is ready to go to press. The printers helpfully fasten the editors into their straight jackets and drag

A Tree Grows...

• FOR SOME TIME THE $64 question on campus has been "Where is the 1947 Cherry Tree?" We can see no point in indulging in advice or recriminations at this point, but we do feel that an explanation is in order.

There were, as we see it, two chief factors in the delay—first, the fact that the book did not go to the printer until this fall, for the final copy was not in until August. This is due, of course, to lack of organization, and poorly planned contracts. And this in spite of the hard work done by many of the members on the staff.

Second, there was the fact that the student body did not meet the second installment payment on the book. Like most people, printers, engravers, and so on charge for their services, and they did not release their work until they were paid. And until the student body paid its debts the Cherry Tree had no money with which to meet these bills.

The outlook for this year is considerably brighter so far. Thanks to much effort on everyone's part, the Cherry Tree for 1948 went to the printer's last Saturday night, and will be out shortly after the 1947 issue—barring accidents. And the worst "accident" would be the student body's failure to meet the second payments due on April 1. If you have not bought your Cherry Tree for 1948 do—it will be here on time. And if you have, be sure that your payment is made promptly—insurance against delays.

A yearbook is one of the institutions at any school. But if an institution is unable to meet its deadlines, or its just debts, the Administration may well feel justified in abolishing it. The Cherry Tree staff has done all it can. The final fate of future Cherry Tree now lies in the hands of the student body.

• FOR THE FIRST TIME in our memory of the school, grades have been mailed out within 48 hours of the last final. While the results were probably far from pleasing to many people, we feel that the Registrar and his staff are to be congratulated. There is a staggering amount of work involved in sorting grade sheets and recording grades for more than twelve thousand people, and the speed with which the task was performed is amazing.

Have You Met

Dorothy M. Whitley

• ON PAGE 53 OF THE CURRENT issue of "Junior Bazaar" you will find the work of a promising, young, attractive University student, Dorothy M. Whitley. Dotty hails from Parsons, Kansas, and describes herself a "mid-westerner through and through." She hastens to add, however, that mid-westerners are no longer the isolationists they once were.

Dotty's enlightening article is titled "So You Want to Be a Diplomat" and discusses training and background needed for foreign service jobs and the opportunities that are open to women. Writing is an old, old story to Dotty as journalism is her "first love." (That means, Bub, she studied journalism at Parsons Junior College.) Further, during her wartime service in the Navy Nurse Corps (Yes, she's a nurse, too), she wrote and edited small naval base newspapers. In 1944 the "American Journal of Nursing" paid her hard cash for her first published article.

Dotty's disposition reveals none of the tragedy that has struck her young life: During her eight months in the Pacific, she met and married Maj. Lloyd E. Whitley in Honolulu. Maj. Whitley was killed in action in 1945. Dotty is carrying on nobly—making a world for herself and her fellow students that Maj. Whitley would be extremely proud of.

As a senior in the School of Government, our "celebrity" has now focused her sights on a "foreign affairs" degree.

"As an individual," Dotty told us recently, "one feels that one can do practically nothing to bring about better relations between this country and the rest of the world. I feel so helpless and at times useless. But," she continued, "if several thousand students majoring in foreign affairs throughout the country would set a truly democratic world as their goal, I would not feel so helpless and I would feel the world is truly progressing."

Idealism? Perhaps, but once you've talked to Dotty as we have, you see she's also a practical thinker. She does secretarial work in her "spare time" for Dr. Kerr, professor of economics; and before the finals worked week-ends at Emergency Hospital, "keeping my hand in at nursing."

Dotty's a member of the Oquassa and a pledge for Phi Pi Epsilon and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Her blue eyes sparkled as she told us that she looks forward to a wonderful summer abroad. She has been selected as a staff nurse to go to Britain during the Olympics.

Whatta deal!

It's On The Record

By FRENCH CRAWFORD SMITH

• ITALY'S GIFT to opera, Ferruccio Tagliavini, faced a much smaller audience than attended his debut here, when he appeared in recital on December 9th. Recovering from a cold, Mr. Tagliavini left much to be desired. His interpretations were cool and not particularly discerning. Occasionally, he warmed to the subject, but this was all too seldom. His audience seemed well-pleased and he obliged with three encores.

After the concert, we trekked back-stage and indulged in a many-sided conversation, aided and abetted by Miss Ethel Evans who is Mr. Tagliavini's accompanist, companion, and interpreter. The rumor concerning his recordings in this country was cleared up. Mr. Tagliavini stated that he expected his first recordings here to become available on January 1st. RCA-Victor is not so optimistic, however, and bills them as February releases. Included in the first batch will be the "Lamento di Federico" from Cilea's "L'Arlesiana."

Robert Merrill and Dorothy Kirsten blend their voices in the "Mort de Thais" from Massenet's "Thais." This excerpt is well-recorded and the accompaniment is outstanding. Mr. Merrill, we are happy to say, has apparently spent a little time getting the meat behind the mere notes on a page. This has not always been the case. Miss Kirsten sings "In quelle trine morbide" from Puccini's "Manon Lescaut" on the other side.

The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, under Dimitri Mitropoulos, joins Arthur Rubinstein in a very good recording of the famous Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto in B-flat minor, Op. 23. This is one of the best performances by the Minneapolis Symphony to be recorded in some time. Mr. Rubinstein handles his chores very well, too. However, we still prefer the Toscanini-Horowitz version which is still available.

Several weeks ago, James John Cerda, Freshman pre-medical student at the University, appeared in recital at the Y.M.C.A. Lounge, before a capacity crowd. We have heard this young pianist several times before and his attack always is fresh and seems to have just the right amount of vigor. Indeed, he speaks the language of the piano fluently. His compositions, while naively examples of his youth, do not fail to show promise. It is to be hoped that we will hear more of Cerda's work in the future.

The other day someone asked our opinion of the various recordings of Bizet's "Carmen." To begin with, there are several so-called "Complete" recordings, but they are, unfortunately, sung in Italian. The most notable of these is the La Scala interpretation.

About a year ago, both RCA-Victor and Columbia released "condensed" versions. The former features Gladys Swarthout, Raymon Vinay, Licia Albanese and Robert Merrill, while Columbia offers Rise Stevens, Raoul Jobin, Nadine Connor and Robert Weede. The RCA-Victor version is preferable to Columbia's because it presents a cohesive, bird's-eye view of the opera. The Columbia album is merely a gathering together of excerpts as they might be performed on the concert stage.

The long-sought RCA-Victor catalog of both popular and classical music has finally arrived in Washington. Local dealers, however, received only ten percent of the number ordered. To those of you who missed out on the first shipment, our pal, Tom Cray, of Southern Wholesalers, says: "Be patient, more are on the way." Meanwhile, we might let you peck at ours. Concerning the listings that are not now in stock, RCA-Victor promises that all records listed will be available around the middle of April, 1948. We hope so.

Poet's Corner

One look in the book,
And two at the wall.
One thought what I ought
And two—thought at all.
One page, I feel sage;
Two more, I'm a stupe.
One note and I gloat;
Two more and I droop.
One frown, study-sown,
Two more born of pique.
One smile all the while
Comes as I shuteye sneak.

Some use it for snoozing,
And others for meeting,
For vacant-eyed musing,
Or gabbling gum-beating.
And one of a hundred,
An old fuddy-duddy,
Will somehow have blundered
In there for some study.

Phi Beta Honors 20 With Keys

• PHI BETA KAPPA membership, the highest scholastic honor that can be bestowed on undergraduates, has been conferred upon twenty University students.

Faculty members in Phi Beta Kappa selected these students from juniors and seniors in Columbian College (in exceptional cases from juniors and seniors in other non-professional divisions of the University) on the basis of broad cultural interests, distinguished scholarly achievement, high character, general promise and scholarly ideals. The number elected cannot exceed fifteen per cent of a class.

The following were chosen: Mrs. Elmer A. Chatham, senior majoring in political science; Chester James Byrns, senior majoring in foreign affairs; Mrs. Jean Neff Hoag, November graduate majoring in history.

Edward E. Masters, senior majoring in foreign affairs; William Peck Rockwood, senior majoring in foreign affairs; Harold M. Wilson, senior majoring in education; Sally Chew Dessez, senior majoring in philosophy; Fritz Reiner Kahn, junior majoring in pre-law.

Shirley Anne Blair, senior majoring in English literature; Henry Darmstadter, senior majoring in psychology; Shirley Gimbel, senior majoring in chemistry; William John Mark, senior majoring in psychology; Albro Martin, senior majoring in economics.

Neil Venable McNeill, senior majoring in English; Harry Kaplan, senior majoring in psychology; Mildred Leona Mincosky, majoring in psychology.

Betty Jane Mullendore, senior majoring in American Thought and Civilization; Carolyn Vinci, senior majoring in English literature; Maunida Sue Wales, senior majoring in Spanish; and Marilyn June Wogman, senior majoring in economics.

Law Association Election Chooses Burton As Head

• W. CAMERON BURTON, Washington attorney, was recently elected president of the University Law Association at a luncheon meeting in the Sheraton Hotel.

Mr. Burton received his bachelor of laws degree in 1921 and was admitted to the bar the same year. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi fraternity, the American Bar Association and the International Bar Association.

Other officers include Charles S. Rhyme, bachelor of laws 1937, first vice president; Eileen O'Connor, juris doctor 1941, second vice president; Oliver Pagan, LL. B. 1937, third vice president; Dayton Harrington, LL. B. 1942, secretary-treasurer. The executive committee is composed of Howard P. Locke and Charles R. Allen, the out-going president, who is an ex-officio member of the committee.

Colonel Walter C. Clephane, professor emeritus of law and chairman of the Committee on Admissions and Grievances of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, was the guest speaker.

Freeman Begins Conference Series

• DR. WALTER FREEMAN, of the University's widely-known psycho-surgery team of Freeman and Watts, presented the first lecture in a conference series at the Institute of Living, Hartford, Connecticut, on January 14.

The conference series features eight other leaders in the fields of neurology and psychiatry and is considered one of the most important international psychiatric conferences held during the year.

Hatchet Invites Students To Join

• ANY UNIVERSITY Student interested in working on The Hatchet is invited to regular Hatchet meetings.

These meetings are held every Wednesday night at 8 p.m. on the second floor of Building M.

Book Exchange To Open Daily For One Week

• THE STUDENT Book Exchange will be open every day this week from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 4 to 6 p.m., co-manager Jim Van Story announces.

This schedule will be in effect until Tuesday, after which the exchange will resume its usual hours, Mondays and Tuesdays, 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and 5 to 6:30 p.m.

Located in Building K, the Book Exchange is a non-profit enterprise sponsored by the Student Council to aid students in procuring textbooks on time and at reasonable prices.

Lists of most-needed textbooks are posted from time to time on University bulletin boards. Students wishing to sell used textbooks should deposit them with the Book Exchange. When the books are sold, the owners will receive payment.

Graduate Seminar In Military Psych Jointly Sponsored

• MILITARY Psychology, a new graduate seminar course, will be offered by the Psychology Department this term. It will be jointly sponsored by the Personnel and Administration Division of the General Staff, Department of the Army, and by the University Psychology Department.

A selected group of responsible civilian and military personnel may register for this three-credit graduate course. Each session, held Monday evenings from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Pentagon Building, will be conducted by a recognized authority on the subject under discussion.

Requests for permission to take the course should be addressed to Dr. C. D. Leatherman, Pentagon Building, Room 2E919, REpublic 6700, Ext. 3288, or to Dean Mitchell Dreese at the University, NATIONAL 5200, Ext. 334 or 339.

Big Sisters Invite Freshman Women

• BIG SIS organization invites all freshman and new women students to a Valentine Party on Wednesday, February 11, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in Strong Hall lounge. The party will feature entertainment, refreshments, and a get-acquainted hour.

The purpose of Big Sisters is to assist in orienting new women students to campus activities and to help them become acquainted with other women students.

• THE EDITORS of The Hatchet, The Cherry Tree and The Surveyor have a snow battle instead of a battle of the press.

Placement Office Lists Job Openings In Columbian House

• AN IMPROVED Employment service and intensified program of part and full-time placement is planned for students by the new director of the University Placement Office, Mrs. Barbara Brown. Job-seeking students are urged to consult the listing of job opportunities posted on the second-floor bulletin board in Columbian House. Information concerning hours, salary, and location of jobs is posted daily and should be checked frequently.

Students interested in a particular job opportunity should sign the appointment sheet in the main office, second floor of Columbian House, for an interview with Mrs. Brown. The hours for interviews are 9:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. daily. For the convenience of evening students the office will be open from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesdays.

Fellowships and graduate courses at numerous colleges and universities throughout the country are listed on the first-floor bulletin board in Columbian House, as well as Civil Service bulletins announcing the examinations and qualifications for government positions.

Tutoring and typing service may also be arranged for in Mrs. Brown's office at reasonable costs. Thus the University Placement Office is designed to meet a diversity of needs of the students of the University.

University Medical Society Announces Awards Committee

• THE UNIVERSITY Medical Society has appointed a Committee on Awards consisting of eight members who will announce the winner of the special award to be presented each year at the annual banquet of the Society.

The special award may be presented to anyone, not necessarily a member of the Society, who has distinguished himself in the field of medicine or its allied branches, or whose work in any other way has been deemed meritorious. Scientific accomplishment, academic attainment, and service to the community will be the three qualifications stressed in determining the suitability of the candidates. However, in cases where two or more candidates have equal qualifications for the award, preferential consideration will be given to members of the Society and graduates of the University.

Competition for the special award is expected to be particularly keen since the award consists of a "suitably engraved scroll, signed by the officers of the Society," and $100 cash.

University Chapel Now Held Friday

• STUDENTS OF ALL faiths are invited to the University Chapel services recently rescheduled to be held on Fridays. The time and place remain the same: 12:10 to 12:30 p.m. at the Western Presbyterian Church, 1906 H Street, N. W. Reverend Carl Kopf, pastor of First Congregational Church, will be guest speaker this Friday.

Chapel services are interdenominational and are sponsored and conducted by the religious organizations on campus under the supervision of Dr. Lawrence Folke, University professor of religion.

An inexpensive and nourishing luncheon is served following every chapel service in the church dining room. All students are welcome.

Library To Publish Annual Theses List

• THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY will soon publish the annual list of theses written by candidates whose degrees were granted in 1947, and also a select list of books added to the University Libraries by purchase and gift during the academic year 1946-1947, and the fall term of 1947-1948.

More Musicians Are Wanted For Enlarged University Band

• ADDITIONAL BAND members are being sought to augment the University Band at the forthcoming home basketball games in the National Guard Armory.

Auditions for band membership will be held this Sunday at 1:30 p.m. in Studio A of Lisner Auditorium. Director Leon Brusloff stresses the need for more woodwind instruments in particular, although there are still openings for all instruments.

The Band offers a varied program of music education, practical music experience, and social events to all musicians attending the University—amateur and professional, women and men. Foremost on the program of band activities this spring is the annual Band Concert. A Band picnic will be held at Meadowbrook Cabin in May, and the year will be climaxed with the presentation of achievement awards at the annual Band Banquet.

Uniforms are provided without charge, and a limited number of musical instruments are available for use of band members.

Regular band rehearsal is held every Sunday at 2 p.m. in Lisner Auditorium, Studio A. Additional information concerning the band may be obtained by calling the director, Leon Brusloff, at SLigo 6468.

Society Re-elects Pres. Richardson Thirty-eighth Time

• DR. EDWARD E. RICHARDSON, professor emeritus of Philosophy at the University, has been re-elected president of the Society for Philosophical Inquiry for the 38th time.

Having received his B.S., M.S., Ph.D. and M.D. degrees from the University, Dr. Richardson taught here for 33 years, six years in the School of Medicine and 27 years in the Philosophy Department.

Listed in Who's Who in America, Dr. Richardson is pastor emeritus of the Congress Heights Baptist Church, and honorary president of the Citizens' Association, having served as president for 20 years.

The author of several books on religious and philosophical subjects, Dr. Richardson is now engaged in writing a book concerning the Darwin theory of evolution.

Corcoran School Shows Art Movie

• CORCORAN ART School will show a color movie on the technical creation of an advertisement this Friday at 8 p.m. in the School auditorium, 17 and New York Avenue, N.W.

All University art students are invited to see this movie which is sponsored by the School's Commercial Art Department, Henry Liebschutz, instructor.

Max Farrington Will Accompany Representatives

• DIRECTOR OF Men's activities, Max Farrington will accompany Sailing Association representatives to the 21st annual meeting of the Inter-collegiate Yacht Racing Association to be held February 6, 7, 8, at the historic New York Yacht Club.

University delegates will play a particularly important part this year, after their successful season in which they became the center of I. C. Y. R. A. expansion in the area. The George Washington University Sailing Association may be called upon to be the head of an autonomous Middle Atlantic Association although no plans to this effect have been officially announced.

Nearly 50 universities from the Saint Lawrence in Canada to Biscayne Bay and the Gulf and west to the coast will arrange race schedules and discuss plans for the development of intercollegiate sailing on a nationwide scale.

Tentative schedules proposed for the University Sailing Team will include Middle Atlantic universities: Princeton, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Maryland, Haverford, Lehigh, Georgetown, Rensselaer, and Delaware.

Of these schools Princeton, Pennsylvania, Lehigh, and Navy as the newly developed Maryland and Georgetown teams will offer hot competition in the eliminations for the championship of the Middle Atlantic area and the subsequent spring championship races with the northern and western schools.

Harvard Crimson Anniversary Issue Lauds 75th Year

• HARVARD University's newspaper, The Crimson, recently celebrated its 75th anniversary with the publication of a 28-page diamond jubilee edition containing articles contributed by leading American personalities in the fields of science, government, business, and the arts.

Former staff members who contributed to the diamond jubilee edition include Joseph C. Grew, pre-war Ambassador to Japan and former Under-Secretary of State; James B. Conant, President of Harvard University, and Robert F. Bradford, Governor of Massachusetts.

The Crimson has had a long and illustrious list of competent men as editors—among them, the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, who remained at Harvard after fulfilling his course requirements in order to serve his term as president of The Crimson.

New Outing Club To Hold Meeting

• PLANS FOR EARLY spring weekend trips will be featured at the initial meeting of the newly formed University Outing Club at 8 p.m. in Room A of Columbia House, Wednesday, February 11.

Shirley Smith told reporters that members would hike, bicycle, and ride horseback over the Appalachian Trail and through the Blue Ridge Mountains.

By ROBBIE ROBERTSON

• FIRST OFF THE BAT, I want to thank the kind-hearted Tim Evans, who drew the above head for "On Other Campuses." I meant to thank you last issue but due to midnight brain-strain, I forgot.

• THIS ONE was just too good not to pass on to you-all here at G. W.. Found it in the Washington and Jefferson paper.

Special Delivery: A doctor was called to a house on a confinement case. The doctor went upstairs to his patient while the anxious husband remained below.

After some time the doctor came down stairs and inquired of the husband, "Do you have a little screwdriver—just a tiny one about this size?" The required tool was supplied and the doctor returned to the patient.

Shortly he again came down stairs, to say, "I need a much larger screwdriver—one about this size!"

The next trip down he asked for a small wrench. A moment or two later he returned to obtain a large wrench. Next he wanted a mallet and a chisel. All the time the anxious husband was becoming more and more anxious.

The straw that broke the camel's back came when the doctor once more raced down stairs and asked for the ice tongs.

"Ice tongs, Doc—what in the world are you doing with all those tools? Tell me—is it a boy or a girl?"

"How should I know," said the Doc, "I can't get my damned medicine case open."

• AND DIDJA hear what the lil' Auburn Polytech coed said—"Not only has he broken my heart, and wrecked my whole life, but he's messed up my entire evening!" Tsk, Tsk, these fickle women.

• SEEMS AS HOW they come real smart with their Psych exam answers at the University of Detroit. When asked to name three types of graphs, one student drew pictures to indicate a Seismograph, a Lithograph, and an Autograph.

• A STUDENT AT Drake University was overheard to make this very observing remark, "The cute little dish is seldom any good in the kitchen."

Regular Glee Club Members Convene

• THE GLEE CLUBS will resume their regular rehearsals Tuesday, February 3. The Girls' Glee Club will meet at 12:15 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday, and 1:30 p.m. Saturday. These meetings are for regular members only. Tryouts for new members will be announced later.

Employment Opportunities

1. Several positions for full-time stenographers at salaries from $160 to $200 per month are listed in the Placement Office. Regular 40-hour week.

2. Clerical positions involving typing and general office work, or general office work only, are available at salaries from $150 to $170 per month.

3. Senior or junior civil and mechanical engineers can qualify for several positions which offer valuable experience to the student and opportunity for advancement after graduation. Salaries depend upon qualifications of applicants.

Alpha Theta Nu Votes On Project

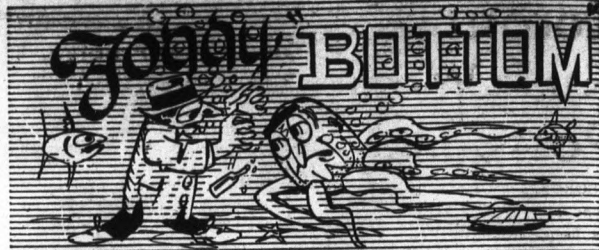

• ALPHA THETA NU members are urged to attend an important meeting this Thursday beginning at 7 p.m. in Columbian House.

Miss Ann McMillan from Miss Kirkbride's office will propose a new unusual school project for the club which will then be voted on.

Members having classes at 7:10 p.m. are urged to come after class at 8 p.m. for this important vote.

Crowley Appointed To Band Position

• PRESIDENT OF THE University Band William Warner announces the appointment of James Crowley to the position of Band Quartermaster. Crowley succeeds Bill Brooks, retiring Quartermaster and twirling Drum Major.

• IT SURE DOES seem wonderful to be back to normal and to know that the days of No-Doz and Benzdrine are over. At least for awhile. A new semester has started and everyone has resolved to do nothing but study... no more Student Club for them. But have you noticed how many bridge games are going on all the time?

After making a somewhat brief survey over the campus, yours truly has made this decision: Seems as how that the people who were so gay during the Christmas holidays have lost the spirit of the thing and become unpinned. The Between-Semesters-Rest saw a lot of unpinning going around. And like as not, that cute couple you knew have also broken up. 'Tis sad but, ooh, so true!

Bill "I'll never pin a girl!" Price, Phi Sig, pinned Shirley Moore, Theta, January 27... The SAE's have two visiting brothers with them. They're from the North Carolina and Duke chapters... Paul Geier, Sigma Nu, pinned Helen Aters, Chi O, the other night... The new broadcasting system installed by KA Bob Reiss at the KA house gives the Harrison-Koach routine a better zip...

No it isn't true that Jinny Teeter, DZ, and Jerry Thomas, the cheerleader, are engaged. Sorry to kill the gossip mongers' story. But Mary Alice Novinger, DZ president, is. Randy Gordon, Argonaut, gave her a beaute of an engagement ring last Saturday night... Al Hall, PIKA, and his Becky are claiming to have taken that step. How about it??

Elton Murphy, Phi Sig, was married to Mary Louise Harrison, alumna, on the 24th of January... Another marriage that took place recently, on the 29th to be exact, was the Les Baker, SAE—Frances Carter wedding at the Chevy Chase Episcopal Church...

George Walton, Sigma Nu, left for Texas University the other day... Cammy Goldsborough, Kappa, became engaged to Doug Moore. They plan to marry May 22nd... Al Holt holds the honorary distinction of setting a record in the greater Washington, D. C., area for the largest appendix. It was 10 1/2 inches long...

The Publications Party will be held Monday, February 9th, in the Student Club. The charge will be 50 cents per person. But what more could you ask than to see Drew Pearson, noted commentator, tapped? Along with several G.W.U. students.

All Freshmen girls who will not be busy the afternoon of the 14th, how about coming out for the Freshmen Play Day with Mary Washington and Trinity Colleges. For further info' call Hildy Stering, DZ. It'll be the first one to be held here at G.W. and we hope not the last one!

Robbie Robertson and Andy Platt have bid adieu to writing Foggy Bottom so you-all now have some one else to beware of...

Unincerely yours,

Miss Foggy Bottom.

Worried About Low Grades?
Memory Associates announces the formation of a special class in memory training for the students of The George Washington University.
Our course is based upon sound psychological principles whose value has been proven by scientific experimentation. An inefficient memory is a strong handicap in both educational and social life.
At the opening session you will be given a standard psychological memory test so that you can know just how good your memory ability is. A number of G. W. students who have taken our course and who have found it a great value in their school work will be present to demonstrate their memory proficiency.

Sororities' Rush Week Postponed

• SORORITY OPEN House, first event of winter Pan-Hel rushing, has been postponed from Sunday, February 1, until Sunday, February 8, from 4 to 8 p.m.

Registration of rushees has been extended until Saturday, February 7, and will be held in Miss Kirkbride's office in Columbian House 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday, and from 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Saturday.

Rushees will be notified by telephone or mail concerning the order of sororities to be visited at the open house, which is considered the first period of the rushing season.

Following each period, written invitations for the next group of events are to be received and answered by rushees in the Panhellenic Post Office, located in Columbian House. Office hours are from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m., Monday, February 9; from 12:45 until 2 p.m., Friday, February 13; and from 3 to 6 p.m., Monday, February 16.

Preference slips, denoting the first, second, and third choices of the rushees, will be signed on Monday, February 16. Sorority bids will be sent out as soon as results of the balloting are released and correlated with sorority lists.

Silence is to be maintained between all sorority actives, pledges, and alumnae, and rushees from 4 p.m., Friday, January 30, until 1 p.m., Tuesday, February 17.

Any questions or problems about rushing should be discussed with Miss Virginia Kirkbride, Director of Women's Activities and Panhellenic Advisor, whose office is in the Columbian House.

Marvin Suggests Army Advisorship

• IN ACCORDANCE with the recommendation of President Cloyd H. Marvin, Secretary of the Army Royall has announced his intention to appoint a scientific assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Army.

The functions of this scientific assistant will be to insure proper relationship between the scientific effort of the Army and its planning activities; to insure effective correlation and mutual support between the Army and other governmental departments; to assure proper prestige to, and sufficiency of, Army contact with industry and civilian science on matters of mutual research and development interest.

Do They Have A Heaven For Old Sports Writers?

By SKIP FOSTER

• UNIVERSITY SPORTS FANS can breathe easier now since Charley Gunner's victory in the finals of the Golden Gloves. At least they have one champion this year. When Charley entered the ring in his first fight, it was his first battle in a ring. Prior to that he was New Jersey Scholastic Wrestling champ... Nowadays fighters turn rassler; Gunner seems to have pulled a nice turnabout. Many fight fans have been talking about a match between Gunner and Jim Regan in the forthcoming Intramural Boxing and wrestling tournament... What do you think???

• TALKING ABOUT RELIEF, "Ace" Adler took a deep breath when he opened his grade report... All's well however, and "Ace" will still be controlling the backboards as the Colonials go into the Southern Conference playoffs... Johnny Moffatt seems to be having a bit of trouble with his hand, and was out of the lineup in the William and Mary game... Will Gene Witkin replace Bunny Citrenbaum as the tenth man on the team???

• THE BIGGEST JOKE OF THE YEAR comes from the announcement that the National Guard Armory will hold an "experimental" double-header on Feb. 11 when the Colonials play Maryland and Georgetown meets Penn. State. Now that the District commissioners and the military authorities have compromised, I'm quite sure that they are going to figure out a way to increase the seating capacity of the Armory without the added expense of building new exits. As mentioned in a previous column, your scribe pointed out the absurdity on the part of both the Military authorities and the commissioners... Maybe Washington will get some decent sporting attractions after all.

• THE LATEST RE-SHUFFLE in the athletic department has resulted in the release of Al Sadusky as line coach. No comment has been made as to the possible successor to the vacant position, and it appears that Coach Stahley will do the choosing... I guess the boys on the football team got what they wanted... Friday night's game with Washington and Lee brings to town one of the South's top scorers, Bob Goldsmith... Ought to be interesting.

Colonials Clinch Tournament Berth; Go To Seton Hall Tomorrow Night Play W & L Here Friday At Tech

By IRA KALFUS

• ASSURED OF A BERTH in the Southern Conference Tournament after their impressive victory over William and Mary last week, Colonial basketballers put a new three game winning streak on the line Wednesday night when they travel up to South Orange, New Jersey to tangle with Seton Hall's Pirates.

This is a tremendously important game for the Zehnmen, since they step out of Southern Conference competition and play one of the East's strongest independent clubs. Seton Hall recently upset powerful Syracuse and at this writing boasts a 13-1 record. Their only loss came on the road to Xavier of Cincinnati. The Hall boasts victories over major teams which include Toledo, Dartmouth, and Rutgers.

Friday night the Colonials are back in D. C. to meet Washington and Lee at a conference foe at McKinley Tech gym at 8:30 p.m. The Generals have not been too impressive and they are pointing for a major win, which means that the Buffmen cannot afford to relax.

Increase Conference Wins

In a review of previous encounters, the Colonials got back into their winning ways and fattened their Southern Conference record at the expense of V. P. I. and William and Mary. Sandwiched between the Georgetown and South Carolina defeats, was a thrilling one point victory over the Duke Blue Devils. The Colonials had to come from behind to squeeze past the Dukemen, and Art Cerra's foul conversion with 27 seconds remaining broke the ice giving the nod to the Buffmen 48-47.

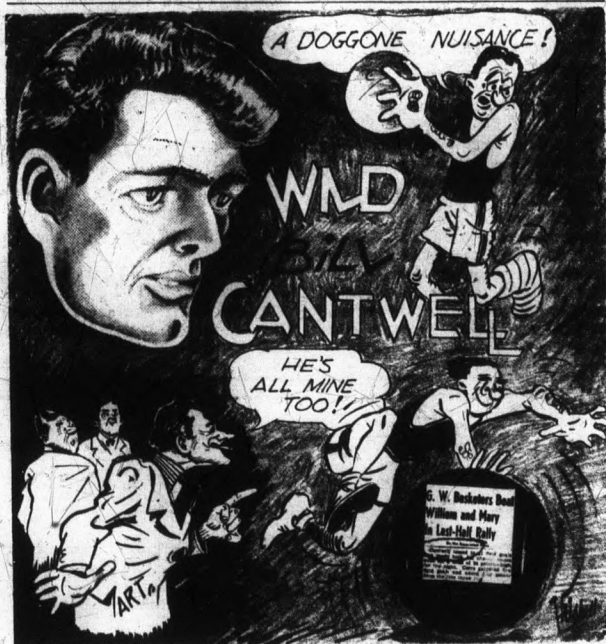

The following Saturday night, the Colonials got off to a slow start with Navy, however the second half was a different story with Ray "Ace" Adler controlling the boards and "Bullet" Bill Cantwell and Jonny Moffatt leading the scoring. The Buff started to move and the Navy was capsized 54-43.

Haithecock Sinks Winning Goal

As final examination recess started, the Colonials entrained for Blacksburg, Virginia, where they wrested a thrilling 60-58 victory from V. P. I. Ten seconds before the final gun, the score was deadlocked at 58 apiece. After a fast pass from Phil McNiff and only two seconds later, Maynard "Bus" Haithecock let go with a long arching set shot. Five players in Buff and Blue plus a perspiring, smiling coach leaped off the bench and smothered the embarrassed Haithecock.

Three nights later the Colonials met William and Mary, and after a sloppy first half came through with an impressive spurt to romp over the Indians 65-40. Ace Adler just about bottled the high scoring Joe Giernak, Bus Haithecock was all over the boards, and with Bill Cantwell and Art Cerra setting the pace with 24 and 14 points respectively the Colonials captured their tenth Southern Conference win.

The Colonials now have a 15-3 record and will have to be at their best when they encounter Seton Hall tomorrow night.

Kappa Alpha Wins Volleyball Crown

• VICTORS IN THE All-University Volley Ball Tourney, Kappa Alpha Fraternity took two of three final games to win the championship, scoring 15-13, 13-15, 15-13, over former champions from the School of Pharmacy last week in the Gym.

Ray Hanken refereed the games in which the KA's, second-place team last year, upset the 1947 Champions.

Evenly matched teams left the championship hanging in the air until the last few minutes of the last game, when the brilliant play of Bill Pollard and Howard Voderbrugge for KA tipped the margin in their favor. Rachmil Schlafsteyn and Matt Paldakovich led the Pharmacy team in scoring honors.

Krupa Outlines Winter Program; Plans New Independent Hoop Tilts

• AFTER THE RECORD turnout in last semester's intramural basketball tournament, plans are now underway to hold another hoop tourney this semester.

Independent teams will begin competing as soon as they sign up with Joe Krupa, Director of Intramural Athletics, in Building R, on H Street. Last semester's victors were the Yankees, and all teams who failed then will have a chance to come back and try again.

With an ever-increasing participation in the intramural program, preparations are being made to hold 13 separate tournaments.

Among those contests to be held this semester are the badminton tournament, which will commence in about two weeks, fencing, golf, softball, tennis, volley ball, weightlifting, table tennis, trampolining, and track and field.

Boxing Tourney Nears

After numerous delays, the Boxing and Wrestling Tournament will be held in the early part of March.

All participants will be required

Dancy vs. Green In All-University Ping Pong Final

• AFTER TWO YEARS of crack tennis competition, University students will have their first opportunity to view the most talked-of match in Intramural table tennis history; Norm Dancy vs. Hal Green, tomorrow night at 9 p.m. in the gymnasium.

Dancy, last year's tourney champ, will have a difficult task to overcome when he encounters Green who is rated as number six in the nation and who was unable to compete in last season's games due to previous commitments.

Both men have emerged undefeated from a field of over 150 participants. This year's contest was the largest one held at the University. All students are invited to attend.

This will be the first meeting of the semester of the fencing club and all students are invited to attend.

Fifteen Frats Seeking Lead In Hoop Tilts

• FRATERNITY Hoopsters, entering their second week of competition, provided the spotlight for the week's intramural activity. With 15 frat teams entered in the playing, the Gym promises to be the setting for some outstanding basketball competition among the Greeks during the coming weeks.

to put in a certain amount of training before they will be eligible to compete. Wrestlers will be able to train on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 8 to 12 noon, in the gym, while boxers will have the gym from 8 to 12 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Krupa urges all men to sign up for the different tourneys to be held and has stated that all equipment will be furnished by the University.

Buff Jayvees Struggling Along With 2-3 Record In Meetings To Date

• COACH JONNY POSTEN's Junior Varsity basketball team, wading through a tough schedule, have come through their first five meetings with a 2 won and 3 lost record. The Jayvees, after losing their opener came back to take two in a row from Capital Radio Training Institute and Devitt and then dropped a couple to Bulls and Army Air Force Hqtrs.

"With everyone on the squad scoring, the 'B' Squad looked impressive in beating Devitt, 56-41. Reynolds, now lost to the squad due to dropping out of school, had his best night as he scored 14 points for the winners.

The game with the Air Force men was a heart-breaker as the Jayvees saw a 3 point lead evaporate in the last 45 seconds of the game and thus wound up at the short end of a 41-40 score. Bulls, one of the better prep school teams in the District this season, was too much for the G. W. "B" squad as they handed the Jayvees a 50-39 set back. Although G. W. matched the prep men basket for basket from the court, it was the Jayvees inability to sink a decent percentage from the foul line that provided the margin of defeat.
